From Saturday October 28, to Tuesday October 31, 1775.

St. James's, October 31.

THE following Address of the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Carmarthen, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable George Rice, their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting; Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Carmarthen, whose Names are hereunto subscribed.

WHEN the Inhabitants of your Majesty's Colonies in America, forgetful of the Allegiance they owe your Majesty and this Country, (from whence they derive their Origin), for the Protection and Nourishment they have uniformly sought and effectually received since their first Emigration from this their Parent Country, are in a State of open Rebellion, denying all Obedience to your Majesty's Government, and the supreme Legislature of this Country:

When complaining of Infringement of their chartered Rights by the Legislature of Great Britain, they themselves, in open Violation of those very Charters, have dissolved all Government and lawful Authority, and assembling themselves in Congresses, and Provincial Meetings, to their Constitution unknown, have encouraged the utmost Disloyalty and rebellious Practices in your Majesty's Subjects there, and by the most severe Terrors and Punishments have prevented the lawful Governors, and Officers of Justice, from exercising the Duties of their respective Stations:

When the same unlawful Congress, by their self-assumed Authority, with a View to the Destruction of the Commerce, Credit, Power, and very Being of this Country, have recommended and been able to enforce Non-Exportation and Non-Importation Agreements, in open Defiance to the Laws of Trade, established and admitted for Ages between Great Britain and the Colonies in America, and by long Experience found highly advantageous to both Countries:

When the same rebellious Assemblies, by specious Addresses to the People of Great Britain and Ireland, and other Parts of your Majesty's Dominions, are attempting to seduce your Majesty's loyal Subjects from their Duty to your Majesty and their Country, and to give Countenance and Support to the violent and unconstitutional Proceedings now carrying on in America:

At a Crisis like this, perhaps as important as is to be found in the British Annals, we think we owe it to your Majesty, of whose just, mild, and gracious Government we have the fullest Experience, we owe it to our Country, we owe it to ourselves, to take this Opportunity of expressing our most hearty Abhorrence and Detestation of these undutiful and traiterous Practices of your Majesty's Subjects in America, and of assuring your Majesty, that we are ready and willing with our Lives and Fortunes to give your Majesty every effectual Support and Assistance in our Power, for vindicating the Rights of Great Britain against all it's open and secret Enemies whatsoever.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Sheriffs, Justices of the Peace, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Carmarthen, has been presented to His Majesty by John Adams, Esq; their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Sheriffs, Justices of the Peace, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Carmarthen, whose Names are hereunto subscribed.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, impressed with a deep Concern at the Rebellious Proceedings of our American Fellow-Subjects, beg Leave to approach your Sacred Person with Hearts filled with Gratitude for the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and equitable Government, and an utter Abhorrence of Measures tending to throw off a due Dependance on our present happy Constitution. This we apprehend and dread is the real (though concealed) Motive of the present Disturbances fomented and carried on by them, in Opposition to their Parent-Country, and regardless of the many weighty Obligations they owe to it. The melancholy Consequences that may arise from their present illegal Conduct, taken in every Point of View, require us to express our Wishes, That your Majesty's Councils may form such Plans as, by a proper Exertion, may reduce to a just Submission, those deluded People now daring to appear in Arms, to the great Annoyance of the Publick Peace, and in Defiance of the Laws of this Realm: We hereby promise and assure your Majesty of every Effort in our Power, that may be conducive to that great End, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes; praying, that the Almighty may bless and prosper your Councils, and enable you speedily peedily to reſtore Tranquillity to every Part of your Dominions.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Arundell in the County of Suſſex, has been preſented to His Majeſty by George Lewis Newnham, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Arundell.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Arundell, impreſſed with the livelieſt Senſe of the Bleſſings we have enjoyed during your mild and equitable Reign, and ſtruck with Horror at the unnatural and daring Rebellion into which your Majeſty's infatuated American Colonies have ſuffered themſelves to be deluded, reſpectfully beg Leave to approach the Throne with the warmeſt Aſſurances of our Fidelity and Allegiance.

At a Time when your Majeſty's Sovereign Rights, the Authority of Parliament, and the natural Ties which ought to bind your Majeſty's extenſive Dominions in a Band of Union, are traiterouſly ſet at nought, it becomes the Duty of all good Subjects to vie with each other in ſupporting the Dignity of the Throne, and the Legiſlature of Great Britain, with their Lives and Fortunes.

We therefore, with all Humility, aſſure your Majeſty, that though many Corporate Towns may ſurpaſs this Borough in Point of Opulence, none can ſurpaſs it in ſteady and determined Attachment to your Royal Perſon, in Zeal for the Conſtitution, or in Wiſhes, that the Crown of theſe Realms may be tranſmitted, undiminiſhed in Luſtre or in Power, to the lateſt Deſcendants of a King, who has paid ſo juſt and equal an Attention to the Laws of the Land, to the Prerogatives of the Crown, and to the Liberties and Happineſs of his People.

The following Addreſs of the Chancellor, Maſters, and Scholars of the Univerſity of Oxford, in full Convocation aſſembled, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable Frederick Lord North, their Chancellor: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and faithful Subjects, the Chancellor, Maſters, and Scholars of the Univerſity of Oxford, in full Convocation aſſembled, humbly preſume to expreſs, at this alarming Juncture, the genuine Sentiments of that unfeigned Duty, Affection, and Gratitude, which we owe to your Royal Perſon, under whoſe mild and auſpicious Government, the Bleſſings of Peace have been derived to theſe Nations; the Spirit of Commerce diffuſed; the Cultivation of the liberal Arts promoted and rewarded; and the Civil and Religious Rights of all your Majeſty's Subjects protected, maintained, and confirmed.

We are truely ſenſible that the Continuance of theſe Bleſſings, and the Preſervation of theſe invaluable Rights, eſſentially depend (under God) upon the Safety of your Majeſty's Perſon, the Dignity of your Crown, and the Authority of the Laws over every Part of your Majeſty's Dominions; in the due and vigorous Execution of which true Liberty conſiſts, and by which alone it can be ſupported.

Impreſſed with theſe Sentiments, we think ourſelves obliged by every Principle of conſcientious Duty to our King, by every Motive of Love and Affection to our Country, to declare our utter Abhorrence of thoſe baſe Artifices and ſeditious Proceedings, by which ſome of your Majeſty's American Subjects have been tempted to violate the Laws, to reſiſt the Authority, and at length to rebel againſt the Sovereignty of the Britiſh Legiſlature.

We have obſerved with deep Concern the pernicious Tendency of that profligate Licentiouſneſs, by which every Part of the Legiſlative Power has of late been inſulted and reviled.—We have lamented that the Liberty of the Preſs, the diſtinguiſhed Priviledge of Britiſh Subjects, has been proſtituted to Sedition, and moſt groſsly abuſed by a Faction which has openly countenanced Rebellion, unawed, and unreſtrained by the wholeſome Severity of thoſe Laws, which alone can protect, and give Vigour to a free Conſtitution.

We have lamented that the illegal Aſſociations of Men, whoſe Hopes are founded in the Calamities of their Country, ſhould prevail to give Confidence to Diſobedience, and Sanction to Rebellion.

We now deplore the Miſeries into which our deluded Fellow Subjects in America have been by theſe ſeducing Arts betrayed; plunged as they are in all the Horrors of a Civil War, unnaturally commenced againſt the State which gave them Birth and Protection.

The Magnanimity and Lenity of your Majeſty's Diſpoſition, already ſo eminently conſpicuous, give us juſt Confidence to hope that, when by the Vigour of your Majeſty's Counſels, and the Valour of your Arms, aided by the Favour and Protection of Divine Providence, your rebellious Subjects ſhall be reduced under the

Power

Power they have thus wantonly provoked, the Royal Mercy will be displayed in the Pardon of a People, who have forfeited their Lives and Fortunes to the Justice of the State; and that the Protection of the British Legislature, under such Form and Restrictions, as the Wisdom of Parliament shall think fit to prescribe, will again be extended to the Colonies, when they shall have learned to revere it.

Given at our House of Convocation, this Twenty-sixth Day of October, in the Year of our Lord, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy-five.

The following Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Town-Council of the City of Stirling, having been transmitted to the Earl of Suffolk, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Town-Council of the City of Stirling.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

AT a Time when a great Part of your Majesty's deluded Subjects in America have presumed openly to take up Arms against your Majesty's Government, we your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of your ancient City of Stirling, humbly beg Leave to repeat our Attachment to your Majesty's Sacred Person, Family, and Government, and to express our Abhorrence and Detestation of such Illegal, Unconstitutional, and Rebellious Proceedings.

We reflect with the highest Sentiments of Gratitude on your Majesty's Paternal Care for the Welfare of your Subjects, in establishing a Peace equally conducive to the Glory and to the Commerce of all your Majesty's Dominions; and we sincerely regret, that such a Peace should ever have been disturbed by a Part of our infatuated Fellow-Subjects. At the same Time we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we will chearfully contribute our utmost Efforts in Defence of your Majesty's Sacred Person and Government.

Confiding in your Majesty's Prudence and Clemency, and in the Conduct and Abilities of your Majesty's Ministers and Officers, we trust that a speedy and honourable Issue will be put to these Disturbances upon a solid Foundation; and that your Majesty's Colonies will return to their Duty and Allegiance, and to that Happiness which they have forfeited by their Rebellion against the best of Princes.

We fervently implore Heaven to bless your Majesty's Arms and Councils with Success, and that you may transmit the Imperial Crown of these Realms, and the Dominions thereto belonging, in the most flourishing Condition, to your Majesty's remotest Posterity.

Signed by our Præses, in our Name, and by our Appointment, in the Council-Chamber of the said City of Stirling, the Thirtieth Day of September, 1775 Years.

James Gibb, Præses.

The following Address of the Bailiffs and Citizens of the City of Litchfield, having been transmitted to the Earl of Dartmouth, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiffs and Citizens of the City of Lichfield.

MAY it please your Majesty to permit us your dutiful Subjects to approach your Sacred Person with Hearts filled with Loyalty, Gratitude, and Affection, and to express our Grief and Astonishment that any of your Majesty's Colonies, raised and protected as they have been, and enjoying, in common with all your Majesty's British Subjects, the Blessings resulting from that most excellent Form of Government established in these Kingdoms, and from your Majesty's paternal Attention to the Welfare of all your Subjects, should suffer themselves to be inflamed and drawn into a most causeless and unnatural Rebellion. And we think it our Duty as Friends to the Constitution to assure your Majesty, that we will chearfully contribute the utmost in our Power in Support of such Measures as shall be found necessary for asserting and maintaining the supreme Legislative Authority of the British Parliament through your Majesty's Dominions.

Given under our Common Seal at the Guildhall of the said City, the 23d Day of October, in the Year of our Lord 1775.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough and Parish of Barnestaple in the County of Devon, has been presented to His Majesty by John Cleyland, Esq; One of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting; Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough and Parish of Barnestaple in the County of Devon,

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence with Professions of our zealous Fidelity and Attachment to your Sacred Person and Government. It is with Gratitude we acknowledge your great Care and Regard for the Public Welfare; and impressed with a due Sense of that Prudence and tender Concern for your People, which has at all Times so eminently distinguished your Majesty's Reign, we cannot but view with Horror and Detestation the present ungrateful and unnatural Rebellion fomented in a distant Part of your Empire. Of the Necessity and Propriety of these Measures which have been already pursued to check and controul the Factious and Misguided, to prevent their baneful Influence over the Minds of the Weak and Unwary, and support the Honour and Dignity of the British Crown, we are fully persuaded; and we rest assured that your Majesty will continue to take such Steps as may serve most effectually to recall this infatuated and deluded People to a just Sense of that Duty which they owe to the best of Kings, and convince them of that Submission and Obedience which the Supreme Legislative Authority of their Kingdoms may justly require from them. To shew ourselves devoted to your Majesty's Person and Government we shall at all Times deem our greatest Glory and Honour; and we trust that we shall always strenuously endeavour to cultivate among our Fellow-Subjects Sentiments of the greatest Loyalty, Fidelity, and Affection.

May the Crown of these Realms long flourish on your Royal Head; and may the Blessings which we enjoy under your mild and auspicious Reign be perpetuated to a grateful and loyal People under the Government of your latest Posterity.

We therefore moſt humbly implore your Majeſty graciouſly to permit us to expreſs our moſt fervent Hopes, that the Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Councils may point out and effect ſome happy Plan of Conciliation, which may reſtore Peace and Confidence in your Majeſty's Government, to your miſguided American Subjects, and which, without impairing the Supreme Legiſlative Authority of this Country over any Part of the Britiſh Empire, may continue and perpetuate to your Majeſty's Colonies in America, on a proper and conſtitutional Baſis, the Enjoyment of the Rights and Privileges of a free People.

The following Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, and Town-Council of Dundee, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Henry Dundas, Eſq; Lord Advocate in Scotland, and Repreſentative in Parliament for Edinburghſhire, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

FILLED with every grateful Sentiment, at the Recollection of the many Bleſſings we enjoyed under the mild and benign Government of your Majeſty's Royal Progenitors; happy with the Continuance and even Increaſe of theſe Bleſſings under this auſpicious Reign, we, your Majeſty's loyal Subjects, the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, and Town-Council of Dundee, beg Leave to approach the Throne with all Humility, and, at the ſame Time, with that Freedom which becomes a People, whoſe well-founded Boaſt is, that they are Subjects of a Prince the Father of his Country, and live under the moſt perfect of human Governments.

It is with Surprize and Wonder we have ſeen, that theſe high and diſtinguiſhed Privileges ſhould have operated in ſo ſtrange a Manner on the Minds of your Majeſty's Subjects in North America; that Benignity, Clemency, and the moſt ſacred Regard to our glorious Conſtitution on the Part of your Majeſty, ſhould have been returned, by the deluded People of that Country, with Clamours and Complaints; and that we ſhould now ſee them in open Rebellion, diſclaiming the Authority of the Britiſh Legiſlature, which has often ſo effectually exerted itſelf in their Behalf, and ſaved them from the inevitable Ruin that threatened them.

We cannot forbear to expreſs, in the ſtrongeſt Terms, our high Diſapprobation of a Rebellion ſo unnatural and unprovoked; and to profeſs our inviolable Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and our Reſolution of acting the Part of loyal and dutiful Subjects on all Occaſions.

We can aſſure your Majeſty, that the Meaſures adopted in America, evidently with a Deſign to prejudice the Commerce of Great Britain, have not in any perceptible Degree injured the Trade of this Town and Neighbourhood.

It is our ſincere and ardent Wiſh, that the Diſtractions amongſt your American Subjects may ſubſide; and Peace, good Order, and juſt Dependance upon the Mother-Country be again reſtored, without the further Effuſion of human Blood: ——But ſhould ſuch pleaſing Expectations fail, we beg Leave to expreſs our Approbation of vigorous and coercive Meaſures, and our full Conviction, that further Forbearance and Lenity would be injurious to the Honour, and deſtructive to the Intereſts of every Part of the Britiſh Empire. And if ſuch Meaſures are adopted, we pray with unfeigned Earneſtneſs, that the Supreme Diſpoſer of all may proſper them, and give your Majeſty the Glory of reeſtabliſhing the Authority of Great Britain over all her Colonies.

Signed in Name, and by Appointment of the Town-council, at Dundee, the 16th of October, 1775.

Pat. Maxwell, Provoſt.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Abingdon in the County of Berks, has been preſented to His Majeſty by John Mayor, Eſq; High Sheriff of Berkſhire, and Repreſentative in Parliament for the ſaid Borough, and John Morton, Eſq; Recorder of the ſaid Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Abingdon, in Common Council aſſembled, truly ſenſible of the many Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government, beg Leave, at this important Juncture, to preſent to your Majeſty the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances of our faithful and zealous Attachment to your Royal Perſon, to the Supreme Legiſlature of Great Britain, and our excellent Conſtitution in Church and State; and that we will, to the utmoſt of our Abilities, aſſiſt in ſupporting them.

We cannot but lament the Miſery and abhor the Conduct of many of our Fellow-Subjects in America, influenced and deluded by the artful Deſigns of ſeditious and factious Men both at Home and Abroad, who, under the ſpecious Pretext of Preſerving the Liberty of the People, are aiming at a total Subverſion of Government, and the confounding of all Order and Decency, and whoſe Machinations have plunged thoſe unhappy People into open Rebellion againſt your Majeſty's Crown and the Laws of the Realm.

We therefore moſt ardently wiſh ſuch Succeſs may attend tend those Measures, which your Majesty, in your Wisdom and the Firmness of your Parliament, shall adopt at this Crisis, as may speedily reduce your rebellious Subjects to a just Sense of their Duty and Allegiance; and that the indubitable Authority of the British Legislature may be equally acknowledged and permanently established in every Part of your Majesty's Dominions.

The following Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City of Aberdeen, having been transmitted to the Earl of Suffolk, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City of Aberdeen.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of Aberdeen, beg Leave to approach the Throne, and to assure your Majesty, that we are most warmly and loyally attached to your Person, Family, and Government; that we contemplate, with the highest Veneration, your many Royal Virtues; that we entertain a most grateful Sense of the Blessings we derive from your Administration; and that we yield to none of our Fellow-Subjects in Zeal for the Laws, Liberties, and Constitution of Great Britain.

Satisfied as we are, that the Honour and Safety of these your Kingdoms, and of every Part of this great Empire, depends on a due Subordination of the Whole to the Supreme Legislative Authority of Great Britain, constitutionally vested in your Majesty and the Two Houses of Parliament, we are filled with Astonishment and Horror to see a most audacious Spirit of Opposition to that Supreme Authority prevail among so many of our Fellow-Subjects in America.

When we consider this unprovoked and unnatural Rebellion as the Effect of blind Rage in a deluded Multitude, seduced to their Ruin by the Falsehoods and Sophistries of designing and desperate Men, we cannot but pity their Infatuation, and lament its Consequences. But we should bely our own Heart, and be wanting in Duty to our Fellow-Subjects, as well as to the best of Sovereigns, if we did not declare before the World, that we hold all such traiterous Proceedings, and all their Abettors, in utter Abomination; that we do most heartily approve of those Measures which your Majesty has been pleased to take for vindicating the Authority of the Laws, the Honour of your Crown, and the Rights of your People; and that, reposing with full Confidence on your Royal Wisdom and Paternal Care, we hope and earnestly pray, that the steady Prosecution of the same vigorous Measures may soon restore Peace to America, and diffuse Prosperity and Gladness through every Part of the British Dominions.

As we know, that your Majesty has nothing so much at Heart as the Good of your Subjects; and as nothing could make us so happy as to be instrumental in communicating any Degree of Pleasure to the Father of his Country, we beg Leave to inform your Majesty, that Turbulence and Sedition are Crimes unknown in this City and Province; that our Trade and Manufactures are flourishing; and that our People are industrious, peaceable, and loyal.

It is our daily and earnest Prayer, that the Divine Providence may bless your Majesty with Length of Days, and with all imaginable Felicity both here and hereafter; and that your Descendants, ever ambitious to imitate your Illustrious Example, may sway the British Sceptre to the latest Generations.

Signed in Name, in Presence, and by Appointment of the Magistrates and Town-Council of Aberdeen, in Council conveened at Aberdeen, the Nineteenth Day of October, One thousand seven hundred and seventy-five.

By Adam Duff, Provost.
